

Contents

Quick Guide to Research Navigator	vii
Chapter 1
Introducing Research Navigator™	1
What Is Research Navigator and How Can It Help with Research?	1
What's in Research Navigator?	1
ContentSelect	2
The New York Times Search by Subject Archive	3
The Financial Times Article Archive and Company Financials	3
Link Library	4
Other Resources within Research Navigator	4
Using Your Library	4
Start Writing	5
Endnotes and Bibliography	5
Chapter 2
Using ContentSelect	7
About ContentSelect	7
What's in ContentSelect?	7
Academic Journals	7
General Interest Publications	8
Searching ContentSelect	8
Select a Database	8
Basic Search	9
Search by Article Number	11
Advanced Search	11
Full Text Results	12
Abstract and Citation Results	12

Chapter 3
Using the New York Times
Search by Subject Archive	14
About the New York Times	14
What's in the Archive?	15
When and How to Use New York Times Articles	15
Searching the Archive	15
Search by Subject	15
Search by Keyword	16
Sorting by Date	16
Chapter 4
Using the Financial Times Article Archive
and Company Financials Database	18
Search by Keyword	19
"And" Behavior	19
Case Sensitivity	19
Searching Within Results	19
Sorting by Date	19
FT.com Company Financial Data	19
Chapter 5
Using Link Library	21
Link Library and the Web	21
What's in Link Library?	22
Finding Information with Link Library	23
Appendix A
Avoiding Plagiarism
and Using Sources Ethically	24
What Is Plagiarism?	24
How to Avoid Plagiarism	24
Paraphrasing	25
Summarizing	26
How to Include Reference Citations
in Your Text	26
Quoting Sources	27
Using Copyrighted Materials	28

Appendix B
Documenting Your Electronic Sources	29
Modern Language Association (MLA)
Style Guidelines	30
American Psychological Association (APA)
Style Guidelines	33
Appendix C
Glossary	36
References	38